Abopt New City Hall Plans

Labor Chiefs Meeting Tomorrow

COMMITTEE TO CONFER WITH JOHN NICHOLL TODAY ON MATTER

That the new city hall to be erected on the Burg Bros., tract will exceed in cost of $25,000 donated to the city for that purpose was intimated by members of the committee following a conference between architects Ogborn and Narbett last night at the Elks club. Several members of the committee and the architects will wait on Nicholl his Morning and, it is said, ask the capitalist to incvrease his appropriation for the new building.

The plans adopted last night call for a white pressed brick building. This is the most expensive brick on the market and unless Nicholl agrees to boost his fund, the committee will probably decide upon a cheaper brick.

The plans and specifications of the new city hall will be presented to the council tomorrow night, J. N. Long, Otto Ludewig, E. H. Harlow Fred Elggerth and H. Adkinson, members of the Nicholl committee were absent from last nights meeting. Those present were Architects Ogborn and Narbett, Messers Tilden, Lee, Pennington, Fernald and soveral members of departments in the city hall.

The plans for the proposed building as presented by Ogborn and Narbett last night call for a building which would rank with any city or state building in appearance in the state. The new building as presented by the architects will be divided into ten departments. Some of these deparments will have four or five rooms.

On the main floor will be the departments of the City engineer, tax collector, auditor and treasurer. The city clerk, Building inspector, Plumbing inspector, Health Department and City attorney offices will be located on the second floor.

The council chambers will also be on the second floor. The committee room is directly in the rear of the council chambers. The council chambers will be used in the day as a police court the committee room serving as a jury room.

The plans call for a building with a 92 foot frontage with a depth of 65 feet. The building will be 45 feetin heiguth or nearly fifteen feet higher than the present building in the Wall tract. The building will be so constructed as to allow for further additions to the second story and also to the rear. A special section for an electrical inspector's office which office it is believed will soon be created are made in the plans.

A basement of eleven feet is allowed. The only addition to the basement plans, is that for the heating system.

Several department heads signed statement with the committee signifying that they approved the locations of heir proposed deparmenss

Fenton claimed that his two fair companions had "frisked' him of his property. But had Fenton refrained from accompanying his accusation with some very choice but unprintable oratory he would today be 710 richer. WHY THEY PROTEST

Fifteen thousand working women and girls in Chicago want to lead decent lives.

Fifteen thousand women and girls in Chicago, even when face to face with starvation, have refused to take the "easiest way."

But they must have BREAD. Without it they can't exist.

And when 20,000 New York suffragists were parading for the ballot, these 15,000 Chicago women were marching the streets of the second largest city in America demanding wages for tedious, trying toil in grimy, smoky factories that will keep them from starvation.

They were the makers of the garments that keep warm the bodies of their oppressors—the rich, profit-seeking manufacturers who have forced these thousands of women and girls to exist on a wage of SEVEN CENTS AN HOUR; who have forced widows to try to suport their children on 70 and 80 cents a day; who have compelled self-respecting American born women to wear the cast off clothes of charity because $3 and $4 PAY ENVELOPES MAKE THEM OBJECTS OF CHARITY.

PROTEST STARVATION

The Chicago parade was the second street demonstration made by the 50,000 members of the Amalgamated Garment Workers of America, who went on a strike a month ago as a protest against STARVATION WAGES and intolerable shop conditions. More than 60 per cent of the garment workers are women and girls.

Chanting their protest against "starvation and degredation" proudly and loudly, as if it were a battle hymn, the women marched past the shops where they had worked 10 hours a day for 7 cents an hour and challenged the "bosses"—many of whom looked on from factory windows—in such war cries as "low wages mean vice"; "our bosses donate to charity, we don't want charity"; "we cannot live on $2 a week"; "give us protection from formen"; "men think of the human cost of the clothes you wear."

And starvation wages was not the only thing they rebelled against. Their revolt had a moral as well as an economical incentive. Banners in garish black and white carried by young girls bore these legends: "Our bosses are destroyers of womanhood"; "we need protection from brutal formen."

Preceding the street parade many of the girl strikers gave testimony on shop conditions to the committee of aldermen that is investigating the cause of the garment workers' strike.

NEED CLOTHES BADLY

Some of them appeared on the witness stand hatless, with thin shawls drawn over their shoulders, others wore the shabby clothes they had bought—so they testified—at Salvation Army bargain stores, or received from "charity ladies." They told the aldermen of their efforts to live on $2 and $3 a week in slack times, and of working from 6:30 in the morning until 6 in the evening when work was rushing and receiving only $8 for their toil. In almost all the Chicago garment shops, it appeared from the testimony, girls were compelled to violate the state factory laws in regard to over-work and hoodwink factory inspectors by punching the time clock at 7:30 o'clock in the morning, one hour after they had been at work.

The aldermen heard of the brutality of foreladies that had to be appeased by presents paid for out of $3 pay envelopes; the vile insults of formen, who told "pretty girls" they could "get out in the streets and make money if $3 wasn't enough wages for them", and of formen offering to introduce "swell men" for evil purposes to the young girls who work 10 and 12 hours a day making [illegible] coats that may keep prosperous Chicago business men snug and comfortable next winter.

MAZDA

True Lighting Economy
Demands Good Electric Lamps

ELECTRIC LIGHTING BILLS are always higher in the Fall and Winter than during the Spring and Summer months.

EVERYONE KNOWS WHY—they realize that the hours of darkness increase greatly as winter approaches, —understand how the short, cloudy days make a great deal of artifical lighting necessary in home, store and factory.

The greatest help toward keeping lighting bills where they ought to be consists of using Mazda lamps.

Most people interested in getting the best illumination at smallest expense already use Mazda lamps.

TRY THEM OUT IF YOU HAVE NOT ALREADY DONE SO.

SEE MICKEY SHRADER AND BILL'S NEW WATCH TODAY

Michael Shrader, star twirler of the Trolley League will visit our city today and at Bill Luce's Park at First street this afternoon will endeavor to impress upon the local baseball club, the 1915 champions, (How does that sound Joe) that he is a really and truly baseball pitcher. Michael has captured 20 victories out of twenty-five games pitched in the Trolley League, which it must be admitted is certainly a very sweet record.

But is the Trolley League on a par with semi-pro baseball in these parts?

This question will be answered today. Every Richmond fan as well as every citizen in Petaluma, Martainez, Sebastopol and San Rafael will be interested in the outcome of the game. In fact, despite the keen rivalry between the towns mentioned, everyone will be pulling for an Elk victory. For the simple reason that it has always been claimed that Trolley League work was not up to the standard put up by the bay county clubs. Therefore, the First street park should and will be taxed to its capacity by fans who desire to know just what kind of ball these Trolley Leaguers dish up.

Rest assured that the gentlemen who foot the bills of the Trolley League do not desire being cleaned up today and the Oroville club will represent the pick of the entire league. The weak spots in the clubs have been weeded out and the best players of the other clubs of the league have been sent in to strengthen the team.

Richmond should win. The club is playing remarkable baseball. Shrader had better come provided with more than his glove and a prayer for the Elks are stinging the ball like demons. For verification of this remark, just inquire of Mr. William Burns, brother of our Charles.

Frank Gordon, will dish 'em up for the Elks. Frank is in good condition as the result of a vacation of two weeks, during which time Charles assumed the mound duties and can be figured on to pitch a strong game.

Mr. Robert Obidiah Daniel Murphy, sometimes known as "Rod" Moiphy, assured us last night that the Elks would win, "Looka Bill tainly we'll win," remarked the human phonograph, "Kooka Bill Cunningham in left playing like a world's champion. And didcha see that play that Conger and Christiansen pulled off last Sunday. Talk about big league stuff. Why that brought a roar from the coast league fans thatata knocked the durn boards off the fence. And looka Eddie Benn at third. There's a fellow who sure is real class. And then there's Cliff Cleek, who keeps 'em glued to the paths as if they were nailed there. Didn't see any of those Coasters running wild on the paths last Sunday didya? Then there's Butch Woodbury. Perhaps that boy isn't playing great ball these fine afternoons? Well I guess yes. And how about Ingraham at first? Isn't that boy just hitting 'er up like a house afire? Yuh bet he is. And Charley Burns and Frank Gordon? How about 'em? Aw say, I don't like to boast, and I'm sympathetic, but oh my, I sure am sorry for Oroville."

Mr. Murphy very modestly refused to comment on his own work. But for the benefit of the assembled fans, let us here remark, that said decendent of the mealey spuds, is there a mile. Didcha see that drive to right last Sunday? And didcha see the old boy morgue them drives to center? If you wern't ther and didn't see 'em you certainly missed some real baseball.

Let's have about 1,500 at today's game. Come out and see Wilhelm Luce and his new watch, the gift of the local baseball fans. Bill is wearing out his watch pocket exhibiting the watch, which, is certainly a jim dandy to the fans.

Now come, Mr. Shrader and citizens of Oroville and get what we have prepared for yuh.

We've heard of a lot of what we thought were good jokes but leave it to the county seaters to spring the good ones.

WHICH REMINDS US OF THE DOPE STORY.

Oh well, didn't we always claim that Joe McNamara was loose some place.

By the way Healey, who will get it in the neck the first game next season?

Today we play Oroville. Whatya say to picking a couple of olives? (Everybody laugh or laff)

Up to date Mickey Shrader has pitched 25 games of which he won 20. At six o'clock tonight, Michael will have twirled 26 games and lost 21.

But that's pretty good record at that.

Aparently they never succeeded in putting their knowledge into practice, however.

A young man named Martinez was arrested here on a charge of robbery in Antioch. With that what more could be expected. At that he was fortunate in not being held for murder.

AMONG THE DISTINGUISHED VISITORS AT TODAY'S GAME IS MR. STULZ, THE "ROOTING CONDUCTOR." THIS BIRD MAKES A KRUPP GUN LOOK LIKE A FRIED CLAM, WHEN HE GETS HIS VOCAL ORGANS INTO ACTION.

And then there will be Frank Schneider, Richmond's white hope. Frank is minus one pin, but oh, my.
